

Risk Performance Upgrades for Performers other than Stunt Performers

ARTICLE A4 - DEFINITION OF TERMS

A440 Risk Performance means the undertaking of any action by a Performer (Other than a Stunt Performer engaged to perform a stunt or stunts) which could be considered dangerous and beyond the Performer's general experience, or the placing of the Performer in a position that would normally be considered hazardous.

ARTICLE A25 - RISK PERFORMANCE

A2501 Performers shall not as a rule be required to undertake Risk Performances. Whenever possible, Producers shall engage qualified Stunt Performers to undertake such work.

A2502 Where it is not possible to engage a qualified Stunt Performer and other Performers are called upon to undertake a Risk or dangerous Performance they may:

- (a) negotiate an additional fee which shall not be less than the fee for a Stunt Performer; or
- (b) refuse to perform the Risk or dangerous Performance but such Performers shall be paid fully for the engagement.

A2503 Notwithstanding any agreement to proceed, the Parties reserve the right to review the circumstances and require that a stunt fee be paid. If the parties fail to agree, the matter may be referred to the Joint Standing Committee.
